Dear <<Salutation_inside>>,

We hope you have been able to join us for a performance this year. We are so pleased to share our next year of concerts with you – announcing Season 2025!

Chief Conductor and Artistic Advisor Jaime Martín leads another season of adventurous orchestral works, opening the season with Mahler's monumental Resurrection Symphony. Our other Ryman Healthcare Gala performances in 2025 are just as thrilling, featuring the return of the incomparable Lang Lang in July and superstar soprano Joyce DiDonato at the Spring Gala.

We continue our commitment to presenting Australian music in 2025, with new works by Elena Kats-Chernin, Deborah Cheetham Fraillon AO and Cybec Young Composer in Residence Klearhos Murphy. Our Composer in Residence Liza Lim curates the annual Metropolis festival alongside Benjamin Northey, showcasing Australian composers making their mark at home and abroad.

The MSO Chorus celebrates its 60th anniversary in 2025, marking the occasion with a performance of Mozart's Great Mass in C Minor conducted by Nicholas Carter and featuring our dear friend Siobhan Stagg. We also celebrate the 150th anniversary of Ravel's birth with performances of the full Daphnis et Chloé and his Piano Concerto for the Left Hand.

2025 Artist in Residence James Ehnes joins us for three programs, including a performance of Vivaldi's The Four Seasons. Other guests appearing throughout the year include the world-renowned pianist Daniil Trifonov, star conductor Elim Chan and frequent MSO collaborator William Barton.

You'll see that our Season Brochure lists concerts chronologically – details about subscription series can be found on pages 56-60. Our Create Your Own Series allows you to curate your own package of five or more performances; please see page 62 for details.

Visit mso.com.au/2025 to subscribe now. Please join us in 2025 for many more musical adventures!

Yours in music,
Melbourne Symphony Orchestra
